

The McPherson Eye Research Institute at UW-Madison presents

VISION

at the

ARBORETUM

Come learn about how vision works for red-tailed hawks and for ground squirrels in the prairie environment they share.

Take a guided prairie walk to experience their ecosystem!

Saturday, June 14, 2014 • 9:30am to 11:30am

at the Visitor Center, UW-Madison Arboretum • 1207 Seminole Highway, Madison, 53711

Advance registration is required and opens May 15th.

$8/adult, $5/child age 12 and under*

(entry tickets will be mailed upon registration confirmation)

To register, contact 608.265.4023 or info@vision.wisc.edu

Following the program, bagels & beverages will be served.

*Program fees cover event costs, without profit to either of the sponsoring organizations.

